

Student travel stipend application instructions
Font style throughout: Times New Roman

A small number of travel stipends will be available for students traveling from the United States and from countries outside the US. The conference organizing committee will make decisions on stipend awards on a competitive basis. Please follow the instructions below to submit an application for a student travel stipend. Awards will be in the amount of $500 for US students, and $800 for international students. Note that registration fees for stipend awardees will be waived in addition to the financial award. Students traveling from Europe, Australia, Canada and Japan are not eligible to apply for a student travel stipend.

Name: First, last name

Institution affiliation:

Country of origin:

Title of oral or poster presentation (note you must submit an abstract to present at the conference in order to be eligible for a travel stipend):

Brief description of research (150 words or less):

Brief description of financial need (150 words or less):

Please email your application in a Word document to: camconference@dbg.org by no later than February 15, 2018. Please write: "last name_stipend application" on the subject line of the email.

Also please arrange to have one letter of recommendation from a faculty research mentor emailed separately to: camconference@dbg.org as part of the application. The email should have: "your last name_stipend letter" on the subject line of the email.